Hains, Rev. Meade Bolton MacBryde.

Miss Mary Triplett Faleson entertained the Young Ladies' Literary Club at her shome Thursday evening, when a most interesting lecture on travels in Spain was given by Miss Maria Blair, of Richmond. The club has devoted this season's work to the study of Spanish history, and met Friday morning at the home of Miss Alice Spicer, when papers on famous intaracters in the history of Spain were read by Miss Katherine Spotswood and Miss Spicer. A review of current events was read by Miss Man Davis.

More active social festivities after Lent

More active social festivities after Lent will be inaugurated by a big Easter serman at the Grey's Armory, Wednes-lay night in Easter week.

WEST POINT, VA.

WEST POINT, VA. April 7.-Miss Ethel Coleman, daughter of Capinin Richard Coleman, of Gloueester county, was seriously injured in a runaway accident on Monday. This session she is traching in Stevenson, S. C., holding the position as aesistant principal. She was driving behind a pair of horses that ran away. The superintendent of schools took her to his home in Winnsborough, and gave her every attention, including a trained nurse. While seriously hurt, it is hoped not fatally. Her father received the telegram at Weldon, N. C., where he was called by the death of his brother-in-law, Captain Thomas F. Anderson, caused by a train of cars. Miss Rithel Coleman has a sister and many triends in West Point.

The "Silent Eight" Club held its semi-annual banquet at the Hotel O'Connor, Wednesday night. Supper was served at to o'clock, elegan' both in quality and service. After delectation of the pilate; came the "feast of reason and the flow of soul," in which the members responded to appropriate toasts. The club then retired to the parlor where the Silent Eight Glee Club, led by their responded to appropriate toasts. The club then retired to the parlor where the Blient Eight Giee Club, led by their teacher, Mr. A. Julian Bagby, rendered fine music on stringed instruments. After a most enjoyable evening the club at 1! o'clock serenaded the town. I The York Club held a very interesting meeting at its rooms Monday evening. The following officers were elected: Mr. J. Clyde De Farges, president; Mr. J.

Clyde De Farges, president; Mr. J. Vivian Curle, secretary; Mr. M. P. Chandler, treasurer, Several new mem-bers were received and delicious refresh-ments were served.

ments were served.

IIDr. H. M. Hargrave, of the West Point Fharmacy, was badly burned about the face on Thursday by carbolle acid, but with great presence of mind and the prompt application of alcohol, he arrested further injury. He is better to-day, though wearing scars.

Little Hilda, the daughter of Captain and Mrs. Galther, who was operated on and Mrs. Gaither, who was operated on last Saturday night for appendicitis, by Drs. Hugh Taylor, of Richmond; Gate-nood and Ross, is rapidly improving. Captain Gaither has also been very sick ilis week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Ware will go to Gloucester Courthouse in the near future, where they will make their home.

Mr. Ware has made arrangements to go

Mr. and Mrs. John Burton, of Shanghal, Mr. and Mrs. John Burton, of Shanghai, massed through West Point Monday from Richmond, where Mrs. Burton has been for some time under medical treatment. Miss Mary Howard Caltewood lest Thursday for South Carolina, where she will spend some time with her sister, Mrs. Thomas J. Moore.

Mrs. H. Wooten has moved in her new home on Fifth Street, and will shortly rimmodel it.

styes of the beautiful who will open a canning factory in West Point this season, has returned from a visit to his family in Baltimore.

Mr. James O'Connor has purchased the

Mr. James O'Connor has purchased the Henley property on E Street.

The many friends of Dr. Sidney Bray, an old West Point boy, now pharmacist at the Memorial Hospital, are pleased to learn of his rapid recovery. He has been in for several weeks. He is taking a course in the Medical College in medicist, addition to his duties as pharmacist.

cist.

A great many colored people are flocking North, to cities, and summer resorts, where they command better wages.

Just now the saw mills all over the country are controlling labor, and a little later the cauning establishments and crab factories will utilize about all of the colored people left. Negroes delight in flocking together. Farmers and house-keepers find it an uphil business to get and keep help.

A union Sunday school is to be organized at Sweet Hall, just above West.

A union Sunday school is to be supported at Sweet Hall, just above West Point, on Easter Sunday, in a public school house for the benefit of those not near a church.

Beach Park is undergoing a general overhauling. The buildings in which were the shooting gallery and other devices, have been torn down, and sixty feet have been added to the former dancing pavillon for a skating rink. The new dancing pavillon will have an upto-date floor.

A lurge excursion is expected on Easter to-date floor.

A large excursion is expected on Easter Monday and a german at the Terminal that night.

The bakery is nearing completion and so is the ice plant. The baker is in place, the feur and the "cash register." In a few nore days all of these will composition, and results will be seen and heard.

Mrs. Prosser Tabb and son, Lloyd, who have spent the winter in West Point, left on Tuesday for Baltimore, thence they will go to their summer home in Giou-Miss Roberta Hogan, of the West Point Miss Roberta Hogan, of the West Point Seminary, joined her sister, Miss Margaret Hogan, on Saturday and went to Richmond on a short trip.

The merchants of West Point have been having their "spring openings" for the past few Tays.

Mr. V. Koslowski has sold his farm just out of town to Mr. M. S. Buch.

Mrs. J. H. Gary is visiting her sister, Mrs. Philip Gibson on West Avenue, Richmond. Mrs. Gibson is just recovering from mond, Mrs. Gibson is just recovering from typhoid fever.

typhold fever.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Evans and Mrs. Nannie McCandish, of Saluda, visited Dr.
W. K. Gatewood this week.
Shad are more plentiful, but still command good prices; Smaller fish are also

West Point has a "five and ten cent store" among its other new attractions. Mrs M. W. Corr and Miss M. L. Corr, Mrs M. W. Corr and Miss M. L. Corr, of King and Queen, were in town this week shopping. Messrs. Elmo Brown and Brantly Bray visited friends here this week.

WOODSTOCK, VA.

WOODSTOCK, VA., April 6.—Invita-tions have been issued by Captain and Mrs. George W. Koontz, of Woodstock, to the wedding reception of their daugh-ter, Miss Ruth Koontz, who wil marry

Mr. Wilher Lauck Newman, Wednesday, April 18th,
The vacancy in the town council of Woodstock, caused by the death of Mr.
N. Bender Schmitt, has been filled by the appointment of Dr. William C. Ford, the unexpired term.

Mr. Weillington E. Loucks, of St. Louis, Mo., organizer of the National Good Roads Association, addressed a meeting of our citizens here this week, and effected a local organization. A Good Roads convention will be held here in the near

The Garrick Club, of Massanutien Academy, of Woodstock, presented the drama "Hazel Kirke" in Irwin's Opera on Friday night, before a large attend-

The three-year-old son of Mr. and The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ludwig, of near Strasburg, was hadly burned about its body on Sunday. Mrs. Ludwig was absent from the room in which the child was but a few moments when its cries attracted her attention, and returning found the child's clothes ablaze, which were promptly torn off. She received severe burns on both hands.

chmond, where Mrs. Burton has been r some time under medical treatment. Miss Mary Howard Gutewood leat mursday for South Carolina, where she ill spend some time with her sister, Mrs. nomas J. Moore.

Mrs. H. Wooten has moved in her new me on Fifth Street, and will shortly model it.

Mr. George W. Fitzgerald, of Baltipre, has purchased the home and prop-

Your Easter Glove Wants Our $1 Kid

New Parasols, New Neckwear, New Veiling, New Belts

UNMATCHED ASSORTMENTS

An Easter Sale of Fine Outer Garments

Such is the character of the styles and the extensiveness of the displays that the selection of attire for Easter or thereafter may not be made best without an examination of the garments represented and a careful consideration of their merits. The descriptions following are but suggestions that may possibly aid in your choice.

The usual Easter rush is just beginning. You will find it greatly to your advantage to make selections AT ONCE, giving us ample time to make any required alterations in a thoroughly stisfactory manner.

At $59.50

never been shown in this city. Both suits and costumes in finest plain and fancy volles and other light-weight materials, each in a complete line of the scarcer shades-grays, tans, light blues, as well as staple black and navy blues. Included in this collection is one model suitable for half mourning. It is of very fine worsted, in modest black and white plaid effect; Eton coat, finished with black taffeta and tracted unusual attention. A very special offering at this price is a model in French volle, made up in a most effective Eton style, with trimming of wide slik braid and ernaments, finished with crush taffeta girdle; skirt made over taffets, drop in the most desirable pleated style of the season

At $49.50

At $39.50

The character of the garments at this price is far above those ordinarily sold. The number of styles from which choice may be made is indeed astonishing. The collection includes the very best styles in each of the favored materials—Panamas, worsteds, etc.—and these each in the most desired shades. Both plain and fancy patterns or weaves are embraced. A sired shades. Hoth pinin and taney patterns or weaves are embraced. A new model, usually sold at $45.00, is of finest voile, slik lined. The skirt is prettly trimmed and finished around bottom with folds. Lining and drop are of guaranteed taffeta. This is to be had in all colors.

At $29.50

75 Women's Tailored Suits at $29.50.

We could not begin to do justice to these sults by any possible description The assortment consists of broadcloths, worsteds, Panamas and fancy mixine, and in every adaptation of Eton, pony coat and rector coat suit. At least do yourself the justice of seeing these before purchasing elsewhere.

At $25.00

new style is represented in the matedesired shades, in which we include Twilight Grays," in plain, fancy and shadow checked materials. In these garments at the low price named purchasers secure the maximum of style, good material, workmanship and values. So many are the variations in weaves, trimming and colors that this line, notwithstanding the duplication of styles, borders upon the exclusive.

The New Arrivals In Lingerie Waists Are Decidedly Fetching,

And possesses a quality that may be designated as essentially feminine, in their delicate embroideries and clever designing-recalling the days of our demure grandmothers. There is a charm about the lingerie shirt waist girl in keeping with the revival of other old-time fashions and of the coming of summer days.

98c

Fine White Lawn Waists, new straight effect of fine Val. lace and embroidery, stitched blouse, long

$1.50

White Lawn Mull Waists, long and short sleeves, new panel style, with rows of Val. lace between each panel; another style has round yoke, formed of rows of Val. inserting, tucked blouse; all sizes, $2.00 value.

$2.00

New White Lawn Panel Walsts, very dressy effect; the entire front is formed of three fine embroidered panels and four rows of Val. Inserting, has deep tucked cuffs long sleeves; regular $2.50 values.

$3.50 Fine Persian Lawn Walsts, front made of rows of handsome embroldery and Val. lace, new floral effect; French tucking in back, lace stock and cuffs; $4.50 values.

$1.25 and $1.00 Fancy Printed Taffeta Silks at 69c a Yard.

Product of the best mills go on sale Monday at less than cost to weave.

That means the grandest single silk bargain in seasonable silks this department has ever had the good fortune to offer. They are the finest made in this country to sell at $1.00 and $1.25 per yard, and the best values shown in Richmond at those prices. We have marked down about 75 pieces from $1.00, $1.25 per yard; special, 60c.

All Silk Crepe de Chine, in a full line of ne All Silk Crepe de Chine, in a full line of new shades. This crepe cannot be duplicated for less than 75c per yard; it is 24 inches wide, and the price, special, 50c a yard.

44-inch Black Crepe de Chine, worth $2.00, special, $1.60 a yard.

44-inch Black Crepe, de Chine, value $3.00, special, $2.50 a yard.

44-inch Black Crepe de Chine, value $3.50, special, $2.50 a yard.

Genuine "Rajah" Silk Suiting

The most pronounced silk success of the cen-ury. Sold exclusively by us in Richmond., It is growing in favor every day. It is the hest rough silk sulting made. It is distinctive, without being conspicuous. Richness in appear-ance is one of its charming characteristics. We have just received a shipment, embracing all have just received as shipment, embracing all the latest and most desired shades. This is an unusual value, at $1.25 per yard.

Black Taffeta Silk, Specially Priced.

36-inch, to equal any $1.15 a yard, now $1.00

36-inch, to equal any $1.50 a yard, now $1.15 yard, yard, 36-inch, to equal any $2.90 a yard, now $1.50

69c Black Taffeta now 59c a yard.
Pure Silk Taffetas, yarn dyed, 19 inches wide; sells everywhere for 69c a yard, special at 59c.

75c Black Taffeta, 65c a yard 75c Black Taffeta, G5c a yard.
Black Taffeta, cannot be duplicated under 75c per yard; special, 65c a yard.
$2.00 Black Peau de Soie, $1.50 a yard.
36-inch Black Peau de Soie, was $2.00 a yard, now $1.50 a yard.

$1.25 Black Guaranteed Taffeta, $1.00. A special value in Clifton Bond Taffeta, 24 inches wide, with absolute guarantee to wear; was $1.25, now $1.00 a yard.

Pure Dye Taffeta Silks

19-inch Moneybak, $1,25 a yard. 26-inch Moneybak, $1,50 a yard.

19-inch Bond Taffeta, 85e,

24-inch Bond Sulting, $1.25 a yard, 20-inch, Made-to-Order, in chiffon, plain fin-

26-inch Moneybak Peau de Soie, $1,50 a yard. 26-inch Moneybak Satin Duchess, $1.50 a

Finest grades of Imported Black Swiss Taffeta Silk, pure dye, with colored selvedge; 19 inches wide, at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 a yard-

Dress Trimmings Most Advantageously Bought Here.

In this season of trimmings, trimmings everywhere, it is more than satisfying to find so complete a stock as ours. Day after day we've evidence of our ability to supply the most wanted kinds—the most wanted shades that cannot be had elsewhere. That's why we're doing the trimming business of this city—a business that far exceeds anything we have ever anticipated.

For to-morrow we offer a number of pieces of imported Colored Appliques, in blues, old rose and pastel shades, festoon designs, mixed with gold; not sold anywhere under $4.00 a yard; special, $2.48 to $3.48 a yard.

For to-morrow—A new line of the much desired Persian Band Trimmings, one inch wide, for vestings, 25c to 75c a yard.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mosser, of Will-

Professor William Kemper, of Bethel Military Academy, spent several days

Military Academy, spent several days here this week with his wife, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Julia M. Allen. Mr. William Storm, of Baltimore, Md., was called here this week on account of the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. George C. Pammond.

Mr. Roy Fravel, of Richmond and Merion Eberly, of Moorefield, W. Va., were in Woodstock this week, visiting relatives.

Miss Nena Walters, of Winchester, 's the guest of Mrs. Herbert Trotters, in this place.

Hon. F. S. Tayenner and Mr. T. G. Locke spent a portion of this week in Bedford City.

Mr. F. L. Bushong, of Charlestown, W. Va., was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bushong, here this week.

ORANGE AFFAIRS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LAHORE, ORANGE CO., VA., April 7.
Dr. Eraest Woolfolk, a prominent physician of this place, who was treated in Richmond several weeks ago, is now at Garleid Memorial Hospital, in Washington, and is said to be ketter.

1r. Eugene Woolfolk took B. S. Cooper, a farme; bye, to the Kellam Hospital bis week. Mr. Cooper has a large, ugly cancer on his check.

Mrs. C. W. Woolfolk, of Orange, has retugned from a long and pleasant wist.

dell, W. Val., visited friends here this his health.

For to-morrow-New Buttons of best pearl, in white or smoked effects; used on cloth or linen, 25c to $1.50 a dozen.

Emblems-Anchors, Stars and Eagles, red, white, navy and combinations; three styles, 25c, 89c, 59c per set.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Fannie Watson Graves, of this county, to Dr. Franklin, a prominent Baptist preacher of Roanoke. The wedding takes place at the home of the popular bride-to-be on April 27th.

Hogs are higher than over before at this season, and traders here are buying and selling in a lively manner.

LEXINGTON, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEXINGTON, VA., April 7.—At a meeting of Camp Frank Paxton, Sons of Confederates, of Lexington, held a few days ago, Miss Julia Wilson, daughter of Mr. James A. Wilson, of Fairfield, was elected sponsor for the camp for the year, and Miss Bessle Poague, daughter of Colonel William T. Poague, of Lexington, was chosen maid of honor.

Mrs. Edward J. Leyburn has returned to Lexington after spending the winter with her daughters, Mrs. Sidney T. Moreland, at McDonough, Md., and Mrs. Charles Louis and Milary Institute.

Nev. Dr. Charles Manly, pastor of the Lexington Inaptist Church, left a few days ago for a fortnight's vacuation, which he will spend at Marlon, Ala, with his son-in-law, Dr. R. G. Patrick, president of Judson Colege, He is accompanied by Mrs. Manly.

Mr. L. A. Coulter, of Richmond, general secretary of the State Young Men's Christian Association, spent Similary in Mishington and Lee Interestry and the Virginia Military Institute.

Malor J. H. Strother, commandant of cadets at the Virginia Military Institute.

Malor J. H. Strother, commandant of cadets at the Virginia Military Institute.

Malor J. H. Strother, commandant of cadets at the Virginia Military Institute.

Malor J. H. Strother, commandant of cadets at the Virginia Military Institute.

Mr. La Coulter, of Richmond, general month's vacanton spent in visiting interest of the Virginia Military Institute.

Malor J. H. Strother, commandant of cadets at the Virginia Military Institute.

Mr. La Coulter, of Richmond, general month's vacanton spent in visiting interest of the Virginia Military Institute.

The Newest In Wash Dress Fabrics.

Women's thoughts now center on planning for spring and summer, and, of course, her toilet must be plentifully supplied with gowns and shirt waists of the new wash suits. Our wash goods sections are brimfull of suggestions and price surprises.

The season's newest, richest and most exciusive Cotton novelty, shown only here, many new patterns just in, 50c.

Printed Silk Moussellnes, in new, very exclusive designs, 25c, 35c, 50c.

Real Irish Dimittes, in new and very tasty patterns and colorings, 25c.

Linen Sultings, in the new and wanted shadings, 20c, 37 1-2c, 50c.

Chiffon Moussellnes, in all street and evening shades, 25c, 39c, 50c.

Embroddered and Anglais Linens and Zephyrs, 75c, 95c.

Printed Organdies.

American made Organdles, fine and very sheer, new and very tasty designs and color-

The finest American made Organdies, unusually fine and sheer and in the Frenchiest of designs, 25c.

ported, exclusive designs, 37 1-20 Organdy Carreaux, in new and tasty designs, 25c, 50c.

Organdy Balsorine, new and very stylish, 50c

Persian Lawns. Three Very Special Values.

45 inches wide, fine, sheer and clingy; to be given you as the biggest value you have ever had offered you.

A Bewildering Display of New White Goods Temptingly Low Priced.

Our display will be at its height during this week. It will be an occasion ripe with attractions. You will surely find interest in this display.

60c and 50c White Irish Handkerchief Lawns 39c, 29c.

36 inches wide, all pure linen and unusual alues, 29e and 39c. Jinen Lawn, full yard wide, all pure; special, 25c. Linen Cambrics,

Full yard wide All Pure Linen, regularly 40c, but special here, 20c. Embroidered Pin Dotted Swisses, unsually fine Mercerized Batiste, fine, sheer, soft and clingy; 40 inches wide, special, 25c. French Lawns.

45 inches wide, fine, sheer, elegant washers and wearers. We just picked up an immense lot, hence these saving prices:

25è kind, 17e. 30c kind, 19e. 35e kind, 23e. 37½c kind, 23e. 40c kind, 25e. 59c kind, 29e.

Every Woman May Indulge Her Love of Embroideries Here at Little Cost.

Embroideries at 12 1-2c.

Value 20c.
Nainsook and Cambric Flouncings, in widths from 4 to 7 inches; new and very effective pat-

Embroideries at 35c.

Value 50c, Wide Flouncings, in nainsook and cambrie; new, rich and effective patterns, of Batiste, Linen and Luce; new, rich and exclusive models; prices $12,50 to $25,00,

New Bolero Jackets

Let Us Fit

Suit.

That

Fit it in that faultiess, individual way that helps a man to win the game in this stremous age.

We can make you a Spring Suit of the finest Imported or Domestic Woolens, New Grays and Self-Figured Blues.

W.S

735 East Main.

Constable. & Co. Successors to Constable Bros.

valiting Rev. Dr. Quarles and Mrs. Quarles at Washington and Lee University. Mrs. Booker, wife of Rev. J. E. Hooker, of Lexington, who is superintendent of the years, has been a trained nurse in the Lexington Hospital, left Thursday for Beckley, W. Ya. to accept a similar position in the Beckley Hospital.

Hon. H. St. George Tucker and Mrs. Tucker were in Lexington this week visiting their old home. While hete they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Morgan Pendicton.

The portrait of General G. W. Custis Lee, president emeritus of washington and Lee University, to be painted by Mr. B. West Clinedinst, of New York, is expected to be finished so it van he hung in the Lee Memorial Chapel at Washington and Lee at the commencement in June.

STAUNTON, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., April 7.-Mrs. Wflliam Berkeley, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anne Berkeley, went to Richmond Thursday, where she will enter the Memorial Hospital for treatment.
Mrs. A. E. White and Miss Eleanor White are spending a few days in Baittmore and Washington.
Mr. James McC. Fox has returned to Richmond.
Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Richardson, of Richmond, were here Thursday and Friday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Holt.
Dr. J. Shelton Horsley, a noted surgeon of Element.

Holt.

Dr. J. Shelton Horsley, a noted surgeon of Richmond, was here this week and returned Thursday.

Rev. George II. Wiley, who was the guest of Mr. Willard Smoot, of this city, returned to Richmond Thursday.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 7.—Matters in the social world continue in a state of coma, the women dividing their time hetween Lenton services and dressmakers.

Itome Mission work of the synod of virginia, has gone to Fort Worth, Tex., to yisit her daughter, Mrs. Clement A. Boaz.

Miss Mary Deaver, who for several Alss Mary Deaver, who for several years, has been a trained nurse in the gate chosen to represent the Charlotte years, has been a trained nurse in the gate chosen to represent the Charlotte gate chosen to represent the Charlotte gate chosen to represent the Charlotte cleeted for the ensuing year and a decision of the State chosen to represent the Charlotte club at the annual meeting of the State Federation, which will be held here the first week in May.

Mrs. Robert A. Dunn received Friday evening at her home on East Ninth street in homor of Miss Houston, of Initimore, Mid., who is a guest of Miss Hattle Brentzer.

Mr. Malcon C. Thompson entertained at a course supper Wednesday evening in the Manufacturers' Ciub in homor of a number of the younger social set.

The sealor class of the Presbyterian College entertained the members of the junior class in a highly enjoyable manner in the parlors of the college Monday evening.

The Juntor class of the college Monday evening in the reception rooms of the college by Miss Joyce Decker, a member of the class. The feature of the evening was a guessing contest, in which the prize was won by Miss Emma Boyle.

Mrs. R. W. Vincent was called to Norfolk, Va., Monday might by a telegram announcing the illness of her stepfather, Mr. J. H. Green.

William and Mary Team.

William and Mary Team.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILLIAMSBURG, VA. April 7.—The base-ball team has undergone constant practice all this week, both morning and evening. In consequence the team is in much better shape. Next Saturday the championship game with Richmond College will be played here, and the result promises to be different from that of Tuesday's game.

Wyatteoop, short-stop, who gave such excellent promise in the Richmond College game, has improved considerably, and Ifenning, pitcher, has developed superior speed, and has gotten better contribution of the ball. The outlied has also be proved, and gives good promise.

and Kabo Corsets. Fittings are free and a purchase is not obligatory. The purpose is to acquaint you with the model comfortably adapted to making the most of your form, and shaping it gracefully to the fashions of the day. Demonstrations begin to-morrow, Monday,

Important

Announcement!

We have with us a corsetiere of wide fame.

who will demonstrate correct corset fashion for Spring. The models fitted will be the latest

La Marguerite

at our store.

#1.B.Mosby.Co.+